THE

PREFACE

HE universal Esteem and great Value set upon those Catalogues mention'd in the Title-Page inducedeme to Compile a more general One; and the frequent Persuasions and Encouragements I afterwards met with, from several Persons of the greatest Worth and Learning (whom the meanness of my Performance will not suffer me to Name) engag'd me to Publish it, thinking it might be of great Use to all Gentlemen, who are inquisitive to know, and Curious to collect Books; for hereby they'll not only be inform'd what Books are likewise may see the various Editions of them; and, for my own part, I believe it would very much advance the Interest of Booksellers in general, to have it constantby by them for the use of their Customers.

The Preface.

Tis true, I have suffer'd it to come 4broad into the World under some disadvantages, much contrary to my first Defign, which was so have reduc'd all the following Tomes into one exact and entire Alphabet; and not only so, but likewise to bave added an INDEX MATERIA-RUM, with References to every particular Book, in what Publick Library it was to be found. This, indeed, would have render'd the Work much more Useful and Acceptable; but many Difficulties arising, and much unexpected Business intervening, which could neither be forefeen nor prevented, forc'd me to put it out under Several Alphabets; for which Disorder, and many other Faults, as well as Imperfections, that either I, or the Printer, may have been Guilty of, I must heartily beg the Learned and Judicious Reader's Pardon; affuring him, notwithstanding all these Mismanagements he'll find most of the Books Printed by all the Famous and Celebrated Printers, viz. Stephens, Frobenius, Aldus, Hervagius, Vascosanus, Colinæus, Macæus, Patisonus, Frellonius, Santandreanus, Bennenatus, Sonnius, Mich. & Andœnus Parvus, Morellus, Gryphius, Commelin, Crifpin,

However, I am very sensible, that in these Two Volumes several good Books are omitted, which shall (God willing, upon farther Encouragement) be Collected into a Third, with a Compleat INDEX to the whole, with a compleant in DEX to the cellent Collection of English Books, both Augi and Modern, with an Exact and Compleat Statute Law Books, Alp logue of Common and Statute Law Books, Alp betically Digetical, under their proper Head.

That the T. Vol. begins at the Letter L.
